MARSH SINGAPORE YANGON REPRESENTATIVE OFFICE OPENS IN MYANMAR

Yangon, October 31, 2015 – Marsh, a global leader in insurance broking and risk management, announces that it has opened its Yangon representative office in Myanmar. The office was declared open today in a ceremony officiated by Dr Maung Maung Thein, Union Deputy Minister, Ministry of Finance and Revenue, and Mr Martin South, Chief Executive Officer, Marsh Asia-Pacific, and attended by diplomats and dignitaries including Mr Derek Mitchell, U.S. Ambassador to Myanmar, and Mr Robert Chua, Singapore Ambassador to Myanmar.

At the opening, Mr South said: “In recent years, Myanmar has experienced rapid economic development and progress, and ushered in an era of prosperity. It has seen a steady inflow of foreign direct investment, and many multi-national corporations have staked their interests in the country. These trends look set to continue, making this an exciting time for Myanmar and its people, and Marsh is delighted to be part of the journey and be an active contributor to Myanmar’s transformation.”

Marsh Singapore, Asia’s leading insurance broker and risk management advisor, helps clients to succeed by delivering innovative industry-specific solutions that help them effectively manage risk. It is a division of Marsh, a wholly owned subsidiary of Marsh & McLennan Companies, a global professional services firm offering clients advice and solutions in the areas of risk, strategy, and people. Marsh & McLennan Companies employs 57,000 colleagues worldwide and its annual revenue exceeds US$13 billion.

The Marsh Singapore Yangon Representative Office will conduct market research and feasibility studies for insurance broking business in Myanmar, and provide business support and liaison activities on behalf of Marsh Singapore’s businesses.

Mr South added: “The inauguration of our representative office in Myanmar affirms our commitment to the people of Myanmar and Myanmar’s sustained growth and development. We believe that we are well-positioned to play our role in further stimulating the economy and enabling businesses to leverage on our extensive experience and network to manage their risks, and achieve operational excellence and business success.”

Jerry Westmore, Chief Country Representative, Marsh Singapore Yangon Representative Office, commented: “Myanmar has great potential. In the past three years working in the country, I have met with some amazing individuals and companies. We are keen to help develop and grow local talent in our business, and we are looking forward to working in this beautiful country, and being a part of its growth story.”
